The Judge Advocate here stated that he desired the accused should be directed to confine himself to the case before the Court.

At the request of a member the court was cleared.

On being re-opened—accused and witness present. The accused was informed that his latter question was foreign to the case and that no more of the kind would be allowed.

The accused submitted the following, in writing, to the Court. Read to the Court by the Judge Advocate.

"I desire to show to the Court, by this testimony, that I expended for the use of my company all the money that it is alleged I failed to account for. I deem it relevant, and of the first importance in my case; indeed, this is my defence, as I plead guilty to all but the failure to account for the money. I propose to prove to the satisfaction of the Court that I did spend the money for the use and benefit of the company, and that I did not charge these expenditures in the company fund account against the company. I sincerely trust the Court will permit me to prove these facts, as by this proof I hope to show that there was no criminality on my part, and that I derived no benefit whatever from the amount under and overcharged, and that the Court will see that my motive for doing a wrong, was that I might do a great good for my company."

At 11 a. m. the Court took a recess, to give time for putting up a stove in the court-room.

At 12 A. M. the Court re-assembled. Present—all the members, the Judge Advocate, and the accused.

Sergeant Murphy resumed the stand.

A. I did not.

Ans. Sometimes in the Captain's possession. Sometimes in the orderly room. As a general thing it was in the Captain's possession

By J. A. How much, do you know, was expended for articles furnished the company in December and not entered on the fund account?

Ans. There was over one hundred dollars during that time. There were ten gallons of whisky at six dollars per gallon. There was food for citizens, threshing on the farm, and men paid for working on the farm. Capt. Connelly bought the whisky; some of it from Wadworth, some of it from Callahan & Flynn. I was present when it was bought from Wadsworth, and received that bought from Callahan & Flynn.

By J. A. Did you have constant access to the company fund account?

Ans. Yes sir; every time I wanted to see it. I saw it very often.

By J. A. Who made out the company fund account?

Ans. As a general thing, Sergeant Repper.

By J. A. Explain the item of one hundred and eight dollars and seventy-five cents for sundries, on the 21st day of December.

Ans. The names of them things I don't know.

Ans. It was not.

By J. A. How do you know it was not?

Ans. The majority of the sundries I purchased myself.

By J. A. Did you purchase sundries to the amount of $108.75 in December last?

Ans. I did not keep account of the purchases I made. I received money from the Captain.

By J. A. Do you remember a conversation at the Sutler's Store at this post, in which you made brags the Captain did not dare to reduce you?

Ans. No, sir.

By J. A. No conversation of anything of that kind ever took place?

Ans Not that I recollect, sir.

By Court. Was any of the barley hauled by Government teams? If so, how much?

Ans. I could not say. I do not know.

By Court. Did you ever have any private money transactions with the accused?

Ans. I did.

J. A. State the nature of these transactions.

Ans. Capt. Connelly gave me some money at one time, sometime in 1868. I don't remember the month.

Ans. I suppose on account of my taking a little better care of things than others did.

By J. A. How much did he give you?

Ans. One hundred dollars.

Ans. Not to my knowledge.

By J. A. What did the Captain say when he gave you the money?

Ans. I don't remember.

By J. A. Do you suppose Captain Connelly gave you a hundred dollars because you did your duty well?

Ans. That was my impression.

By J. A. Was this hundred dollars part of the company fund of Company "I."

Ans. No, sir.

By J. A. Was it the Captain's private money?

Ans. I understood it so.

By J. A. Did you do anything in return for this hundred dollars, or had you done anything for it?

Ans. Nothing but my duty as a soldier.

B. J. A. Is Capt. Connolly in the habit of giving a hundred dollars to his meritorious non-commissioned officers?

Ans. I do not know, sir.

By J. A. On your oath, now, was not that sum given you to induce you to keep quiet about this matter of company fund, or some other peculation?

Ans. No, sir.

By J. A. How long have you been in service?

Ans. Ten years.

By J. A. How many captains have you served with?

Ans. Capt. Connelly is the 3d.

By J. A. Did you ever know of other captains giving a hundred dollars out of their own pocket as a reward to their non-commissioned officers?

Ans. I never knew whether they did or not.

By J. A. Did you believe the money was given to you as a reward for the excellent manner of discharging your duty to the Government?

Ans. I considered it so.

By Accused. Did Capt. Connelly have to coax you to do the orderly duty of the company in 1868, in consequence of the condition of the company when he took charge of it?

Ans. He did.

By Court. How do you know the amount paid the men for working on the ranch was not charged against the company?

Ans. I was present when the company fund account was made out, and I suggested myself and others, and know it was not taken up.

By J. A. You only know, then, that this money was not entered in one account as paid to the men, and don't know that it was not charged as something else?

Ans. It was not charged as something else.

By J. A. How do you know this.

Ans. I can't say how I know it.

By Court. Do you know of Capt. Connelly's having paid to any other soldier money for faithfully performing his duty. If so, to whom, and how much?

Ans. I do not know of any others except myself.

The testimony of this witness was read over to him, and he retired from the Court.

Sergeant Frederick W. Repper, Co. "I" 9th Infty., a witness for the defence, was called before the Court and duly sworn.

By Accused. What duty were you performing during the month of December, 1868?

Ans. Clerk in Quartermaster's Dept. at Camp Ruby, Nevada.

By Accused. What knowledge did you have of the expenditures made by Capt. Connelly for the benefit of Comp. "I" 9th Infantry, during the month of December, 1868?

Ans. I made out the account current for the quarter ending on that month.

By Accused. Do you know that Capt. Connelly expended for the company, during the month of December, 1868, any money which was not charged to the company in the fund account?

Ans. Yes, sir, he did.

By Accused. How do you know.

Ans. He told me so. I saw amounts disbursed that were not included in the account current.

By Accused. What were the expenditures?

Ans. There was expenditure for extra duty pay on the ranch. There was whiskey bought, and on the farm there was an expenditure for reaping.

By Accused. About how much money was expended in this way by Captain Connelly during the month of December, 1868, and not charged by him against the company in the company fund account?

Ans. Several hundred dollars.

By Accused. Are you positive as to the amount?

Ans. No, sir, I am not directly positive.

By Accused. Can you specify any of the items?

Ans. I think there was something like a hundred dollars paid for extra duty pay on the ranch, and there was something like sixty dollars for whiskey and thirty dollars for reaping.

By Accused. Do you know why these items were not charged against the company by Captain Connelly in his company fund account?

Ans. He told me that he thought they would be disallowed.

By Accused. Do you know how Captain Connelly expected or intended to cover these disbursements made by him, and not charged against the company in his company fund account?

Ans. By adding to the expenditures, or deducting from the receipts.

By Accused. How do you know this?

Ans. He told me this.

By Accused. Did Captain Connelly employ soldiers on the company's ranch?

Ans. Yes, sir

By Accused. Were these soldiers paid for their work on the company's ranch?

Ans. Yes, sir.

By Accused. By whom were they paid, and how much to each soldier?

Ans. By Capt. Connelly. Some men received as high as twenty-five dollars, and others in proportion to the time they had worked on the ranch.

By Accused. Do you know whether the amounts paid the soldiers by Capt. Connelly for their work on the company ranch was charged against the company in the company fund account?

Ans. It was not.

By Accused. Do you know why these sums were not charged in the company fund account ℓ

Ans. Because he feared they would be disallowed.

By Accused. When did Capt. Connelly make the payment to the men employed on the company ranch?

Ans. In December, 1868.

By J. A. You say you know that Capt. Connelly made expenditures for the company which were not charged the company. How do you know this?

Ans. I was present when the expenditure was made, and when I was making out the account current I noticed it was not placed upon it.

By J. A. You only know then that it was not charged in the . form it had been paid, and don't know that the amount was not really charged as something else?

Ans. Yes, sir, so far as I know.

By J. A. How did you arrive at the sum of one hundred and eight dollars and seventy-five cents charged for sundries on December 21st?

Ans. Capt. Connelly called the items from a memorandum book that he had.

By Court. What data did you have to make up the account current?

Ans. Such data as Capt. Connelly called off from his memorandum book.

The testimony of this witness was read over to him and he retired from the Court.

Private Timothy Hoban, of Co. "I," 12th Infantry, (formerly Co. "I" 9th Infantry) a witness for the defence, was called before the Court and duly sworn.

Ans. I worked on the ranch several months last year and I think a part of October.

By Accused. Were you ever paid anything for the work, and by whom, and how much?

Ans. I was paid twenty dollars coin for the whole work.

By Accused. Did you give a receipt to any one for that $20?

Ans. No. sir.

By Accused. About what time were you paid the $20?

Ans. I could not exactly tell, sir.

I did not keep any account of the time.

Bvt. Lt. Col. E. R. Platt, Capt. 2d Arty., a witness for the defense was duly sworn and gave as his testimony the following:

"I have known Capt. Connelly more or less well since Sept. 1865. I have never been stationed at the same post with him, but have met him often, and know that his reputation for zeal and efficiency was excellent. Before these transactions I never heard his honesty doubted."

Bvt. Col. J. McL. Taylor, C. S., a witness for the defense, was duly sworn.

By Accused. Please state how long and how intimately you have known the accused, and what has been his character during the time?

Ans. I have known the accused for about three years. But never have known him very intimately, but I have always thought him an active, faithful, zealous officer. That was his reputation.

The Judge Advocate then read a letter from Bvt. Maj. Gen. John H. King, Col. 9th Infantry, and admitted the statements it contained to be correct.

Colonel:

I first knew Capt. T.

Connelly in 1856, when he marched with me as First Sergeant of Co. "A," 1st Inf., from San Antonio, Texas, to Fort Belnap, a distance of 350 miles. He was again under my command in 1861, (holding the same position) from San Antonio, Texas, to Key West, Florida. When I joined my regiment on this coast 21 years ago, I found Capt. Connelly, then a First Lieutenant in the regiment, doing duty as Recruiting Officer in San Francisco.

I always found him military and zealous in the performance of his duties.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
John H. King,
Col. 9th Inf. Bvt. M. G.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Court Martial:

I would respectfully invite your attention to the nature of the defence set up by me in extenuation of my errors as pleaded to. I trust that the evidence has shown fully that there was no evil intent on my part, and that the over and under charges made by me were for the benefit of my company and the benefit of the service. The results flowing from my efforts in behalf of my company are well known, and the present condition of the company will testify that, although the over and under charges were wrong, yet they were for a good purpose, and the company have derived the benefit of the error.

I have been twenty years in the U. S. Army. Six years of that time I have served as a commissioned officer, in the grades of First and Second Lieutenants and Captain, during this time. I have never had my character assailed in any way, and I have always had the good will of my superiors. I earnestly trust the Court will take into consideration my motive, and trusting in its impartiality and leniency,

I have the honor to be, your most obedient servant,

T. Connelly, Capt. 9th U. S. Infantry.
